

Human Origins

1. Early humans in Africa had to move to find food. It is believed that humans of 100,000 years ago most likely only moved how much per generation?

2. In the section titled, "Space", what tends to happen when population becomes too large for the area.

3. What three weather-related events can cause a population to find new homes?

4. Imagine yourself as an adult. What factors might cause you to migrate to another state or country? Now imagine that we can live on other planets. What might cause you to migrate from planet Earth?
