- As the world got warmer, the ice began to melt and the sea levels rose.
- The Coastal areas Were flooded; the land was Under Water and the bridge was melted away.
- The Native Americans who crossed the land bridge following the herds of animals Were now cut off from going back to Asia.
- For the next 13,000 years the Native Americans developed Societies and Civilizations that were very different from those in Europe or Asia.
- Most Native Americans lived and developed agricultural Societies but not advanced Civilizations like in Europe or Asia.
